By submitting this Candidate Nomination Form, you are certifying that you meet all candidate qualifications specified in the Association's Election Rules which are listed in the accompanying notice of nominations.

You are welcome to attach a one-page (one-sided, not less than 11-point font) candidate statement or provide a little of your "personal background," such as education, business, HOA experience, and etc. The Association holds no responsibility for candidate content.

Susan Clarke Crisafulli was born and raised in San Diego. She purchased her home in Alvarado Estates in October of 2005, and after an extensive remodel moved into it in 2007. She was elected to the Board in 2006 as the Social Chair. In 2010, she was elected President of the Association. She currently is on the Architectural Review Committee, the Communication Committee and helps with coordinating social Events with Social Chair, Lori Mullen.

Why would you like to serve as an Alvarado Estates Board Member?

When asked why she would be an asset to the Alvarado Community Association in 2006, Susan said, "I have a strong sense of community and believe I can bring a fresh and exciting perspective to the board. I am committed to helping create a bright future for our community. I plan on living here forever!" And today when asked, she said, "I continue to be committed to our community. I believe that my job as a board member is to be an advocate for our homeowners and serve in our best interests. This is the best neighborhood in San Diego, and I plan on being entombed here!"
